OUR COMMUNITY NEEDS YOUR SUPPORT

Barrie families are struggling to meet the basic needs, and we can help. The Salvation Army has been helping Canadian families in need since 1882. Soup, soap and salvation was the early philosophy, which is still provided today. The non-profit organization has established a tremendous partnership with government and provides comprehensive social service programs. The Salvation Army offers practical assistance for children and families, often tending to the basic necessities of life, provides shelter for homeless people and rehabilitation for people who have lost control of their lives to an addiction.

NEEDS LIST; (Salvation Army Family Services Program)

- children's used winter outerwear (snow pants, jackets, vests etc.)
- boots (winter, rain)
- socks and long underwear
- used sweaters/sweatpants
- used hats, mitts and gloves

What can The Good Shepherd do to help??

The Good Shepherd Cozy Christmas event will be the launch of our "Warm Winter Drive" Please review the needs list for the Salvation Army Family Services program and consider donating to this community need. Go through your bins and donate to our local families in desperate need. Anything your family has grown out of, would be sincerely appreciated by others in need. Thank you for your support.
